

Department of Economics expects students follow the rules below during all examinations. Violation of the rules will be considered as the attempt to cheat and disturbing the examination, and will be reported to Dean's office.

1. Students will be assigned seats by the proctors, and the proctors may also ask the students to change seats during the exam.
2. Students must keep ready the ID card during the exam.
3. In addition to ID card, sufficient number of pencils and erasers, students can only carry the documents and equipments that the lecturer has permitted.
4. To share the equipments and the documents during the exam is strictly forbidden.
5. Students should put their belonging to the places shown by the proctors.
6. Mobile phones, PDAs and other electronic devices that are used for wireless communication and data storing must be turned off during the exam. These types of devices cannot be used as a calculator or as a watch. Use of calculator is allowed upon permission of the lecturer.