Notown Records has decided to store information about musicians who perform on its albums (as well as other company data) in a database.

- Each musician that records at Notown has an SSN, a name, an address, and a phone number. Poorly paid musicians often share the same address, and no address has more than one phone.

- Each instrument used in songs recorded at Notown has a unique identification number, a name (e.g., guitar, synthesizer, flute) and a musical key (e.g., C, B-flat, E-flat).

- Each album recorded at Notown has a unique album identifier, a title, a copyright date, and a format (e.g., CD or MC).

- Each song recorded at Notown has a title and an author.

- Each musician may play several instruments, and a given instrument may be played by several musicians.

- Each album has a number of songs on it, but no song may appear on more than one album.

- Each song is performed by one or more musicians, and a musician may perform a number of songs.

- Each album has exactly one musician who acts as its producer. A musician may produce several albums.
