GENERAL INFORMATION

Test of English as a Foreign Language (TOEFL)

The purpose of the TOEFL® test is to evaluate the English proficiency of people whose native language is not English.

The test is given in two formats, depending on where the test is taken. The paper-based test is given on up to 12 scheduled dates (see calendar) in Algeria, Bangladesh, Bhutan, Cambodia, Hong Kong, India, Japan, Korea, Laos, Macau, Myanmar, Pakistan, People's Republic of China, Taiwan, Thailand, and Vietnam. Elsewhere, the test is given in a computer-based format by appointment (see the Information Bulletin for Computer-Based Testing). Both forms of the test evaluate a student's ability to listen and understand English as it is spoken in North America, to recognize and write standard written English, and to read and understand nontechnical reading matter. For more information about the two testing formats, see the TOEFL Web site at www.toefl.org. Please Note: In some areas of the world, testing will be offered at supplemental centers. If the test center list on pages 15-19 indicates that supplemental paper-based testing will take place, candidates must refer to the test center list for supplemental administrations on pages 20-22 and obtain an Information Bulletin for Supplemental TOEFL Administrations by writing to TOEFL Services, Educational Testing Service, PO Box 6151, Princeton, NJ, 08541-6151, USA, or calling 1-609-771-7100. The Bulletin is also available at most local colleges and universities, the institutions listed on the back cover of this publication, and from the TOEFL Web site at www.toefl.org.

Test of Written English (TWE)

The purpose of the TWE® test is to provide students with an opportunity to demonstrate their ability to write in English in response to an assigned topic. This includes the ability to organize ideas, to support those ideas with examples and evidence, and to compose in standard written English. The TWE test score does not affect the total TOEFL score; it is used as an additional measure by some colleges and universities to evaluate students' writing proficiency.

In 1999-2000, this 30-minute essay test will be offered with the paper-based TOEFL test at the August, October, December, February, and May administrations. In addition, if you take a supplemental administration, you will be required to take the TWE test.

Test of Spoken English (TSE)

The purpose of the TSE® test is to evaluate the spoken English proficiency of people whose native language is not English. It requires examinees to answer orally a variety of questions presented in printed and recorded form. Spoken answers are recorded on tape.

The TSE test is paper-based and administered 12 times a year (see the calendar on this page and the test center list beginning on page 5). A separate TSE test center list for candidates taking the computer-based TOEFL test begins on page 23.

The cost of the TSE is US$125. The TSE program has two registration categories: TSE-A and TSE-P.

TSE-A is for teaching and research assistant applicants who have been requested to take the TSE test by the admissions office or department chair of an academic institution. TSE-A is also for undergraduate or graduate school applicants.

TSE-P is for all other individuals, such as those who are taking the TSE test to obtain licensure or certification in a professional or occupational field.

Test Registration/Information Bulletins

To register for the paper-based TOEFL, TWE, and TSE tests, students must complete a registration form contained in the 1999-2000 Information Bulletin for TOEFL, TWE, and TSE. In countries and areas where the computer-based TOEFL test is given, candidates must schedule an appointment to test after reading the 1999-2000 Information Bulletin for Computer-Based Testing. Students planning to take a supplemental administration must use the registration form in the Information Bulletin for Supplemental TOEFL Administrations.

A separate information bulletin for the Test of Spoken English is available for candidates who are taking the computer-based TOEFL test.

Institutions may order a supply of bulletins free of charge from the office that serves its country or area (see back cover). Bulletins may also be downloaded or ordered by institutions and candidates from the TOEFL Web site at www.toefl.org and are available at the office serving their area (a list is on the TOEFL Web site), United States educational commissions and foundations, United States Information Service offices, and binational centers and private educational organizations, such as the Institute of International Education. Bulletins may also be ordered from TOEFL/TSE Services, P.O. Box 6151, Princeton, NJ 08541-6151, USA; by calling 1-609-771-7100; or by sending e-mail to toefl@ets.org.

Fee Voucher Service

The TOEFL program offers a fee voucher service for the convenience of institutions and agencies that choose to pay the TOEFL and/or TSE test fees for their students or applicants.

There are no fees for this service; fee vouchers are provided to participating organizations without charge. Institutions and agencies are billed only for the number of vouchers processed. A minimum of 10 vouchers must be used per academic year.

Upon receipt of a completed fee voucher request form or letter (on agency letterhead), vouchers are prepared in the quantity ordered and sent to the address provided. The completed form or letter serves as authorization for ETS to send fee vouchers to the designated individuals and to bill the institution or agency for the vouchers used. Each fee voucher is overprinted with the name and code number of the participating institution or agency and is valid only for the test year and the program (TOEFL or TSE) specified thereon.

The fee voucher service can be particularly useful to institutions and agencies working with students in Eastern Bloc countries or in such areas as mainland China where it is difficult for students to obtain US dollars. Fee vouchers are distributed by participating institutions and agencies directly to all examinees for whom they will pay the registration fees. The test takers, in turn, use the completed vouchers in lieu of their own personal payment.

Following each test administration, a sponsoring institution receives the scores for each examinee who submitted a fee voucher and an itemized invoice listing the number of vouchers used. The invoice also includes the locations of the test centers at which the examinees tested.

It is important to note that the locations of test centers are relevant to TOEFL/TSE test fees. Because of fluctuations in the value of the US dollar compared to other world currencies, differential fee schedules are necessary in certain countries. Because of high operating costs within the countries most affected, TOEFL/TSE test fees have been adjusted accordingly.

IMPORTANT NOTICE FOR INSTITUTION AND AGENCY OFFICIALS

The TOEFL program reports scores for a period of two years after a test administration. The official score report routinely sent to institutions and other TOEFL score recipients designated by the test taker, as well as the examinee's own copy of the score report, bear an electronically reproduced photo image of the examinee.

If there is any doubt about the identity of an examinee who took the TOEFL test, or if there is reason to suspect possible impersonation or misconduct, we urge institutions to contact ETS. Please send a brief explanation with either the official score report or the examinee's score record to:

NOTE: Irregularities uncovered by institutions and reported to ETS are reviewed by the ETS Test Security Office, and, if appropriate, scores are canceled.

Computer-Based TOEFL Test Centers

Outside the United States, Canada, American Samoa, Guam, US Virgin Islands, and Puerto Rico

For updates to this list, see the TOEFL Web site at <http://www.toefl.org>.

Find your country and region number in the list below this box. Then contact your Regional Registration Center (RRC) to schedule your testing appointment. Note: Centers marked with a ■ are permanent centers, where testing is available throughout the year. Centers with an * or a month and year listed are supplemental. If you plan to test at a supplemental center, you must obtain an Information Bulletin for Supplemental TOEFL Administrations prepared for these locations. This Bulletin contains testing schedules and locations and is available by writing to TOEFL Services, Educational Testing Service, PO Box 6151, Princeton, NJ 08541-6151, USA, or calling 1-609-771-7100. After July 1, 1999, it will be available from most colleges and universities, the institutions listed on the back cover of this publication, and the TOEFL Web site, www.toefl.org, as well as from TOEFL Services. The test center list for supplemental administrations is on pages 20-22 of this booklet.

Visit the TOEFL Web site at www.toefl.org for updates to this list since there may be changes after this is printed. If there is no test center in your country or within 200 kilometers of the city where you live AND it is impossible to test at one of the listed locations, contact ETS to see if arrangements for testing can be made.

NOTE: When calling an RRC that is located outside the country from which you are calling, you must dial the international access number first.

TOEFL STUDY MATERIALS

Study products have been developed to help nonnative English-speaking students become familiar with the newly revised TOEFL test. They also contain information about the Test of Written English.

The TOEFL Sampler, an instructional CD-ROM, is available to help you prepare to take the new computer-based TOEFL test. The Sampler contains seven tutorials similar to the ones examinees will be asked to view on the day of the test. Three of the tutorials contain information on using a mouse, scrolling text up and down on the screen, and using the testing tools. The remaining four include directions for answering questions in each section of the test.

The TOEFL Test Preparation Kit, 2nd Edition, provides information about each section of the TOEFL test, 980 practice questions (seven tests), and review material. It also contains information about the TWE test and practice exercises. You will move through a natural progression of steps before reaching the final test exercise, which includes TOEFL and TWE materials packaged and sealed as they would be for an actual test administration. More than 235 minutes of audio material and a free CD-ROM for the new computer-based test.

TOEFL Practice Tests, Volume 1, contains two TOEFL tests and TWE writing exercises, as well as directions for taking the tests. Use these 280 questions to practice your test-taking skills!

TOEFL Practice Tests, Volume 2, was prepared for those who want additional practice. It contains four TOEFL tests with 560 practice questions and more than 130 minutes of recorded listening comprehension material. Volume 2 can be used on its own or as a companion to Volume 1 or the Test Preparation Kit. The more you practice, the better prepared you'll be.

TOEFL Sample Test, 6th Edition, includes information about the TOEFL program, one full-length test with cassette, answer sheets in the horizontal and vertical formats, and an answer key. There is also information about the Test of Written English (TWE) and two sample topics to use for the essay writing exercise. An economical way to learn about the test!

How can TOEFL study materials help prepare students?

Test takers will:

- hear both male and female North American voices
- become accustomed to the speed at which the test questions in the listening comprehension section are spoken
- hear English without seeing the speakers' faces and lip movements
- become familiar with the actual test directions
- practice answering the types of questions used in the actual test
- read and hear the material developed by the same people who develop the test for administrations given around the world

Note: Prices may vary in some countries. Check the Information Bulletin for your country or area.
